DEFENSE CALL FOR CHARACTER WITNESSES TODAY

MEXICAN SITUATION GRAVE; GEN. HUERTA'S DEFIANCE MAY RESULT IN TROUBLE

Official Washington Regards Situation as Even Graver Than That Which Preceded the War With Spain.

PRESIDENT REALIZES GRAVITY OF THE CASE, BUT HOPES FOR PEACE

Wilson Regards as Almost Incredible Some of the Statements Issued on Behalf of Huerta—Huerta's Course May Drive United States to Recognize His Foes.

Washington, August 7.—The American government tonight was confronted with the most delicate situation in its relations with Mexico that has yet arisen since the revolution broke out in 1910.

The threatened revolt from the Huerta administration to the nation of John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson, en route to Mexico City to expound the hopes of the United States for a suspension of hostilities and an orderly constitutional election in Mexico, drew from Senator Bacon, chairman of the foreign relations committee, a declaration on the floor of the senate today that the present situation was "graver than any which has ever arisen in the past."

Wilson Realizes Gravity. President Wilson realized the gravity of the situation and manifested during the day his displeasure at the attitude of some members of the minority party in congress, telling calls were made in the senate to handle the situation in a peaceful manner.

On this account, Mr. Wilson justified tonight the strong and emphatic language of Secretary of State Bryan in his message to congress, and a debate in the senate on the resolution of Secretary of State Bryan, republican, demanding a general investigation of Mexican affairs, had referred to the "disrespectful and insulting" attitude of the president and his administration.

Peaceful Solution Hoped For. President Wilson, however, advised from Mexico City that the Huerta government was inclined to Mr. Lind's mission, he let it be known that he was not inclined to learn, there was not the slightest demand from the American people for intervention, and the United States government to help restore peace in Mexico were reported.

The president is confidently hopeful that a peaceful solution of the Mexican trouble can be effected. He made it plain to callers that until advised officially to the contrary, he would continue to regard as incredible the statements issued on behalf of President Huerta, declaring Mr. Lind's presence in Mexico as a "disrespectful and insulting" attitude of the president and his administration.

He stated that he was not inclined to believe that the Huerta administration would make a "disrespectful and insulting" attitude of the president and his administration.

INHERITANCE TAX PASSED BY HOUSE

Swift Substitute Bill Receives an Overwhelming Majority. What the Measure Provides.

The house on Thursday passed the Swift inheritance bill by a vote of 143 to 13.

The measure is a substitute for the three bills introduced by Messrs. Cobb, Barrow, Ledbetter, of Polk, and Swift of Muscogee, and was amended by general judiciary committee No. 1.

The bill provides for a levy of a tax upon all real and personal property in the state which shall pass on the death of a decedent by will or by the laws regulating descent and distribution, or by deed, grant or gift, except in cases of a bona fide purchase for a full consideration.

A tax of 1 per cent is levied on such property in excess of $5,000 passing to any immediate kin or adopted children of a decedent. A tax of 5 per cent is levied on all property affected by this bill passing to any person, corporation, association other than those included in the 1 per cent class.

This measure, which has been in force in two states in the union for forty-five years, and is now in effect in thirty-eight states, is by the vote of the house one of the most popular measures ever passed in the state, and is considered probably the fairest means of taxation possible.

With a ten-minute limit on speeches in debate, Mr. Smith, of Fulton, took the floor, discussing the good effects of the bill in other states, the increase in this state's revenues that might be expected from the passage of the bill, and touching upon the constitutional issue.

Mr. Slaton, of Bryan, pointed out that the bill does not call for an annual tax, but only a tax on the transfer of property.

Harris Sticks to Testimony As to Time of Girl's Death

Dr. H. P. Harris, the state's final witness against Leo M. Frank, was put on the stand at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, and through a series of questions Attorney General Gordon, for the defense, sought to make him admit that the girl had been killed at the time of the death of the girl.

Dr. Harris was asked a number of questions about the time of the death of the girl, and he was asked to state that the girl had been killed at the time of the death of the girl.

Will Defense Put Character Of Leo Frank Before Jury?

Will Leo Frank's character be one of the issues in his trial for the murder of little Mary Phagan?

That is a question which has been the subject of speculation since it was first known that he would be tried for the murder, and as the case has progressed the subject has been discussed frequently.

Not one in a hundred defendants place their character in issue when on trial for murder, but a condition has arisen in the Frank case which may cause his attorneys to think it wise to take this step.

JOHN WEAVER'S DEATH CAUSED BY LIVE WIRE

Lineman Is Killed While on the Cross-Tie of a Telephone Pole.

Coming in contact with an electric wire heavily charged with electricity, John Weaver, a white man 50 years of age, was instantly killed Thursday afternoon about 2 o'clock in front of 152 McDaniels street.

Weaver was a lineman in the employ of the Atlanta Telephone and Telegraph company, and was on a cross-tie of a telephone pole when the accident occurred.

The live wire which caused his death was one of the Georgia Railway and Power company's wires, and carried the voice of electricity. Weaver, after touching the wire, fell over on the cross-tie and his body was carried by the wind, where he died.

He was married by a wife, one child, his father, Peter Weaver, and a brother, Sam Weaver, of Astoria, Ore.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been made. Weaver's home was on Woodward avenue.

The state might, however, bring an action against the Georgia Railway and Power company, and try to show evidence to point to him such a man as a negligent person.

HOUSE KILLS LAST HOPE OF TEACHERS

Declines by Vote of 70 to 99 To Submit to People Matter of One Mill Tax to Meet Deficiency.

The last hope of the school teachers to receive prompt payment of their salaries by the state went by the board Thursday morning, when the house, by a vote of 70 to 99, declined to submit to the people the right to say whether they want to clear the state of this debt and do the honorable and upright thing by the teachers of their children.

This stand was taken by the house when the administration bill to amend the constitution, to allow the levy of a special tax of 1 mill in 1914 and in 1915 for the purpose of meeting the deficiency in the common schools of the state, was taken up.

Plans Made by Winberry. In the opening of the debate the proposition was put forward by Winberry, of Bibb.

"We are now at a point where the sincerity of this house is on test. The time for playing to the gallery is passed and the vote on this constitutional amendment is the show down."

Mr. Fulbright, of Burke, declared that the only purpose and effect of the bill was to pay the teachers. "The proposition is squarely up to you," he said. "Do you want to pay the teachers, or do you not? That is the question you will answer by your vote."

"I do not believe," continued Mr. Fulbright, "that this house means to pass this bill, but nevertheless, this is the question you face. Will the politicians in this house trust the people at home?"

Mr. Barrow, nominated for collector of customs, is a son of the late Pope Barrow, and a nephew of Chancellor Barrow, of the University of Georgia.

BILL FOR INCREASE IN SENATORS TABLED

Huie and Anderson Believe There Should Be 60 Districts Instead of 44.

The bill of Senator Huie, of the thirty-fifth, and President Anderson, of the first, providing for the creation of sixty senatorial districts in the state of Georgia in the next of the forty-four now existing, was tabled in the senate yesterday afternoon upon motion of Senator Huie by a vote of 20 to 12.

This bill provides that the six counties having the largest population in the state shall be divided into two senatorial districts each in the senate. Upon the feature the attack upon the measure was centered by many senators who claimed that the bill would give undue authority to the city counties and would reduce the small counties to a secondary position.

Two bills which were killed in the house at this session providing for a redistricting of the state into 44 districts for the next of the forty-four now existing, was tabled in the senate yesterday afternoon upon motion of Senator Huie by a vote of 20 to 12.

The bill prohibiting the running of any but through freight trains on Sunday was also tabled in the senate yesterday afternoon upon motion of Senator Huie by a vote of 20 to 12.

Senator J. W. Brown introduced two bills, one to abolish the attorney for the railroad commission and one to create a railroad attorney for the governor, which he said would much facilitate the governor's work and not hinder the work of the railroad commission.

The senate committee on agriculture has recommended that the experiment station be allowed to remain in Griffin, while general agriculture committee No. 2 of the house has recommended that it be removed to some point in day Georgia.

Distance Race at Motordrome; All Ten Riders Will Start

All existing motorcycle records for board track will probably be smashed by an attractive one it is. The first race starts at 8:30 o'clock:

to smother them when the ten riders at the local motordrome get away on their 35-mile jaunt tonight.

One hundred times the ten riders will circle the track, and from the start they are going at their fastest motordrome purse (qualifying heats, 1 mile; final, 2 miles. Winners of trial heats and second man in fastest heat to qualify). First heat, Richards, Lockner, Graves.

In the race tonight, which, by the way, was for the first time in the south, Graves, Renal, Glenn and Lockner will make these two speed merchants race at a clip that is different than they did in the marathon, as they have their "bats" going at a steady pace.

There will be the usual three 3-mile heats and a 2-mile final in the motor-drome program.

Harry Glenn, the local boy, will again be the favorite in the special match race. He has defeated Shields, Luther and Renald, and is training in the state straight-bucks.

George Lockner, the twenty-four year-old, will try to prove his class tonight.

Here is the complete program:

First Event.
Special match race, distance 3 miles. Invitation race, distance 3 miles. Open to all riders.

Second Event.
Special match race, third heat, special.

Third Event.
Twenty-five mile race for champion of the south—Drava, Swartz, Shields, Lockner, Richards, Luther, Renald, McNeil, Lewis, Glenn.

Catholics of Atlanta will tender a reception this afternoon from 3 to 7 to four Sisters of the Sacred Heart at their home, 193 North Boulevard. These sisters, Mothers Aquilina, Sister Carmelita, Sister Imelda, and Sister

Mildred, came to Atlanta from Philadelphia to devote their lives to the education of colored children in the South.

The school was built by the fathers of the African mission and opened for students October, 1917. Over 100 pupils were enrolled last year. After the reception this afternoon there will be a benediction of the blessed sacrament in the church of Our Lady of Lourdes.

Chili Con Carne

Jim Little, president of the Dougherty-Little-Redwine company, is taking all the time about the big time that is going to be had at the barbecue next Wednesday. When he sits busy, there is sure something doing.

E. F. Malone, of the Capital City Tobacco company, says that it is a pleasure to give away cigars to the merchants. He says that a merchant is not a man who knows a good cigar when he smokes it, hence the pleasure which comes from watching the cigarette on each man's face as he smokes these famous brands.

The Atlanta Show Case company have sold quite a few nice bills through the convention and say that now there will be some good-looking citizens scattered through the country from now on. Many merchants who have been going to New York for their cigars have found this year that all they really have to do is to take a trip down to Tabernacle Place.

COTTON STARTED OFF AT ADVANCE

But Prospects for Improved
Weather in the Southwest
Stopped the Advance—Near Months Closed Higher.

New York, August 7.—Prospects for an improvement in southwestern weather conditions checked an early advance in today's cotton market, prices eased off with the close steady at a net loss of 4 to 5 points on active positions. Near months were relatively quiet and steady during the entire day, closing a few points net higher. A buying movement at the opening, after prices were 1 to 2 points net higher, Liverpool futures were a shade lower than the day, but conditions in the English market and a feeling that rain in the Balkans would be in the direction of improved continental trade conditions, probably helped the local advance.

Further private deterioration reports from the Southwest and the failure of the early weather map to show any relief from the dry, hot conditions recently complained of were the main bullish features, however, the market the early trading inspired quite an active demand for near months. As prices worked upward, a few near months were uncovered, and the market at one time showed a net gain of about 4 to 5 points, with the near months less active at three hours, while the market later eased off on private reports of rain in Texas and Oklahoma, and the end of the week. The official forecast for generally clear weather in these states, but for increasing cloudiness in Arkansas.

Color the prediction of individual farmers in both the New York and New Orleans markets, whose views seemed to be based either on a low barometer or the Louisiana river, or a high barometer with higher temperatures, was advanced to be working southward from the North Pacific section.
